

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Fred Yaeger
Office: (914) 423 7972
Cell: (914) 525 9198

EMERGENCY AND CRISIS MANAGEMENT EXPERTS SPEAK
AT THE ROCKLAND COUNTY BUSINESS ASSOCIATION'S CEO FORUM
ON THE INNOVATIVE EMERGENCY RESPONSE MODEL
THAT KEEPS BUSINESS OPERATIONAL DURING A CRISIS OR DISASTER

Emergency And Crisis Management Experts recently gave a presentation at The Rockland County Business Association's CEO Forum on The Innovative Emergency Response Model That Keeps Business Operational During A Crisis Or Disaster. The experts are from BNET (Business Network of Emergency Resources, Inc. a not for profit corporation headquartered in New York City and dedicated to establishing emergency crisis management solutions in partnerships between the public and private sector. Pictured from left to right, Peter Picarillo, Executive Director of BNet, Inc. and former Director of Public-Private Initiatives for the New York City Office of Emergency Management, Robert Leviton, M.D., President of BNET, Inc, Al Samuels, President and CEO of Rockland Business Association, and Burt Steinberg, Chairman of the CEO Forum and Vice Chairman of the Rockland Business Association.

